A Guide for Taiwanese Students

Founded in 1845, Ollscoil na Gaillimhe – University of Galway is one of Ireland’s oldest and largest universities. University of Galway is an international university with global ambition, but with deep roots in Galway City and the West of Ireland – a region renowned for its unique culture, creative industries, marine ecology, medical technologies and innovation.

The University’s main Galway campus covers over 105 hectares of land along the river Corrib. The campus is home to world-leading teaching and research facilities across the sciences, social sciences and humanities, delivered through four colleges, 19 Schools and five Research Institutes - Data Science Institute (DSI), Ryan Institute, Whitaker Institute for Innovation and Societal Change, Institute for Lifecourse and Society, Moore Institute for Research in the Humanities and Social Studies - and a range of research centres and clusters.

With over 4,000 international students and 480 international staff from 122 countries, University of Galway contributes greatly to the diversity and dynamism of Galway City and the West of Ireland as a region.

Meet Our Students

"Galway is one of the most attractive and intriguing jewels of the West of Ireland. The city is picturesque and at the same time, full of life, culture, and artistry. I like the ambiance and nature here in Galway. Galway is also a thriving and cosmopolitan city centre with lots of colourful shop facades and an offbeat café bar culture.

I have grown into a person I never thought I would be since moving to Galway!"
